ANNUAL FASHION SHOW

Center for Social Change (CSC) organized the annual fashion show on with 'Paris' as this year's theme which is one of the coolest fashion show themes ever! The stereotype that Parisians only wear black goes out the window when beautiful colors, from bright, saturated hues to subdued earth tones, dominated the event making it flamboyant. CSC's Fashion show was an entertaining event with a cause for the onlookers who gathered for the show. All energies were devoted to make sure that the fashion show was brilliant. The event kicked off with a 'Red Carpet' followed by fashion presentations, a fashion show and an after party. Individuals and staff presented the latest summer trends. It will not be easy for audience to forget presenters wearing bejeweled headbands, colorful clothes, and glittered shoes. The center truly succeeded in establishing a show-stopping collection to go along with their epic fashion show.

MEMORIAL DAY COOK OUT

When we think of Memorial Day, we often think of barbecues, parades, time off school and the beginning of summer. On the eve of Memorial Day, Center for social change celebrated a Barbecue party at the head office in ElkrIDGE on Friday 25th of May. Children, individuals and staff of CSC participated in this event.

Picnic tables were dawning with red, white, and blue table cloths. Hot dogs were on the grill. Potato salad was being passed around. Light music with the smoke of BBQ added stars to the event. Everyone sang, danced, and enjoyed some ribs.

CSC celebrated this year memorial day with the real theme of remembrance — more specifically, the remembrance of men and women who have lost their lives fighting in the military.

SIX FLAGS

This May, Individuals and staff of Center for Social Change went to enjoy a beautiful day at Six Flags Maryland. Excitement was great when they reached the amusement park and immediately decided to get on the new Batman ride. Individuals had pictures with different characters like Tweety Bird, Sylvester the Cat and Bugs Bunny.

After enjoying the giant drop and exciting rides, Individuals enjoyed lunch and then headed to the water park. A few of them jumped in the hurricane bay, while others went to wet their feet in the Monsoon Lagoon.
